

LSART STRIKE TEAM TRAINING

April 26 – May 1, 2010
Baton Rouge, LA

Sponsored by

LA State Animal Response Team
International Fund for Animal Welfare
LSU SVM Equine Health Studies Program

WHAT?

- ◆ Six-Day Intensive “Boot Camp” Field Training Course
- ◆ 2-day Ropes Course (Monday-Tuesday)
- ◆ 2-day Slack Water Rescue (Wednesday-Thursday)
- ◆ 2-day Large Animal Technical Rescue (Friday-Saturday)
- ◆ NEW: Register for entire training or 2-day mini course

WHO?

- ◆ Animal Control Officers, Veterinarians and Technicians, LSART Members
- ◆ Physically able and willing to deploy to in-state and out-of state emergencies
- ◆ Must come self-sufficient with transportation and supplies for camping

WHERE?

- ◆ Classes will take place at LSU FETI and LSU SVM campuses
- ◆ Tent or trailer camping with hot showers will be available at BREC Farr Park on River Road, one mile from training centers

HOW?

- ◆ Class size limited to 30 trainees, with LSART certificate upon completion
- ◆ Training will simulate actual response conditions, combining classroom and on-the-ground exercises, with attendees required to bring their own food, response-appropriate clothing and camping supplies
- ◆ A complete list of recommended supplies will be given to confirmed registrants. Some safety equipment will be available.

COST: $50 for total course, $25 for each mini-course

To register, complete and return the attached form with check payable to: WJE Foundation, memo “LSART Training”

For more information, phone (225) 931-9631
or visit the LSART website at www.lsart.org